Trinity Industries, Inc. Announces the Acquisition of Platinum Energy Services

DALLAS – February 10, 2014 – Trinity Industries, Inc. (NYSE:TRN) today announced that it has acquired the assets of Platinum Energy Services Corporation (“Platinum”) through a newly formed subsidiary. Platinum, based in Alberta, Canada, manufactures and resells oil and gas process and storage equipment, including various types of containers, separators, and treaters used at the well-site and in midstream locations. The company operates out of two leased facilities in Calgary and one owned facility in Redcliff, Alberta. Initial annual revenues are expected to be in the range of approximately $40 million to $45 million.

“We are continuing to identify acquisition candidates that align nicely with the companies within our portfolio and which provide products to the oil, gas and chemical industries,” said Timothy R. Wallace, Trinity’s Chairman, CEO, and President. “Platinum has a comprehensive product offering, experienced personnel, and they are located right in the heart of the Canadian energy industry,” added Mr. Wallace.

“Platinum has been in operation for over 20 years providing equipment to the oil and gas industry across the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin as well as the greater North American energy industry,” said William A. McWhirter II, Trinity Industries, Inc. Senior Vice President and Construction, Energy, and Inland Barge Group President. “Platinum provides an ideal way for us to explore opportunities to manufacture well-site and midstream products. This market offers plenty of opportunities for additional expansion,” added Mr. McWhirter.

The assets and results of operations for the Platinum acquisition will be reflected in the Energy Equipment Group for financial reporting purposes.
