Trinity Industries, Inc. Announces Construction Products Asset Sale

DALLAS – May 30, 2007 – Trinity Industries, Inc. (NYSE:TRN) announced today that its subsidiary, Transit Mix Concrete & Materials Company, has sold a group of Houston-area assets to an undisclosed buyer, effective at midnight on May 30. Included in the sale are seven ready mix concrete facilities and an aggregates distribution yard.

“The sale represents Trinity’s exit from the metropolitan Houston concrete market,” said Mark W. Stiles, Trinity Senior Vice President and Group President of the Company’s Construction, Energy, Marine, and Components Group. “Along with our acquisition of Armor Materials, it reflects a realignment of our focus to markets that are better suited to our business model.” In April, Transit Mix acquired Armor Materials, a group of East Texas asphalt, ready mix concrete and asphalt businesses.

The sale was made for cash and the purchase price was not disclosed. Revenues from the assets sold represent approximately $40 million per year.

Trinity Industries, Inc., headquartered in Dallas, Texas, is a holding company that owns a variety of market-leading businesses which provide products and services to the industrial, energy, transportation, and construction sectors.
